

POULTRY

(Continued From Tenth Page.)

third old hen; D. Reams, fourth and fifth old hen; G. N. Walton, first young cock; first young hen; M. L. Keck, first and second old cock; first and second old hen; White Show Homers—R. W. Wood, first and second old cock; first and second old hen; J. H. Atkins, third and fourth old cock; third and fourth old hen; White Dragons—J. M. Elmore, first, second and third old cock; first, second and third old hen; Inside Buff Tumblers—W. N. Gregory, first old cock; first old hen; first young cock; first young hen; Red Check Flying Homers—D. Reams, first and second old cock; first and second old hen; G. N. Walton, third old cock; third old hen; Spotted Swiss Mondrains—R. C. Giddens, first young cock; first young hen; White Pink Eye Rabbits—M. G. Mince, first buck and first doe; J. H. Dillard, second buck; J. C. Wilson, first doe and litter; J. H. Dillard, second doe and litter; White Polish Rabbits—J. C. Wilson, first buck, first doe.

DOGS

Dog awards were announced as follows: Bloodhounds—First prize and championship, St. Hubert II, J. W. Woodland, Richmond; Pointer bitch—First, Zettelle, D. Garthwright, Richmond; second, Queen, D. Garthwright, Richmond; third, Memphis, John W. Brauer, Richmond; Pointer dogs—First, Ned, E. P. Woodall, Richmond; no competition; Pointer puppies—First, Gladys, D. Garthwright, Richmond; second, Buck, D. Garthwright, Richmond.

RICHMOND IS PROUD OF JACOBS & LEVY

A Big Broad Street Clothing House That Does Big Things.

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS SEE IT

Its Reputation Is State-Wide and Its Business Methods Are Very Great.

Last Sunday Jacobs & Levy, the great clothing men of Broad Street, used all kinds of printers ink in the Times-Dispatch. It is quite likely that no firm in Richmond ever filled more space in a newspaper to let the public know what it had to offer in the way of bargains. Page after page told of the superior quality of men's and boys' suits, the furnishings goods, the hats and shirts and gloves, and the hosiery and the automobile suits, and in short, of the varied and tremendous line that enterprising firm carries in the three floors of the big building it occupies on Broad Street.

This firm of Jacobs & Levy is composed of young men, who are hustlers from the word go. They commenced hustling in this good city about four years ago—just four years ago, in fact—and in that time they have built up a business and a name that any concern could well feel proud of. How have they done it, and in so short a time? Simply by handling first-class goods in their line, by using good judgment in buying and by always giving every customer a full dollar's worth for one hundred cents.

In celebration of the fourth year of their successful business along these lines, they decided to make this week a kind of donation week; that is to say, they are devoting 10 per cent. of this week's sales to charity. This is the scheme that Jacobs & Levy made very plain in their big advertisement of last Sunday.

When the members of this enterprising firm make an announcement and then their names to it, the trading and thinking public know that it is good for all it says. The result was that for the past several days, except the day that was a religious holiday, the big store on Broad Street has been crowded with people. It being Saturday week, the crowds that flocked there, and are still flocking there, were not merely Richmond folks, but they came from all parts of the State. These crowds of people were delighted with the vast stock of goods placed on exhibition, and just as much pleased with the fair dealing and the uniform courtesy that marked the attention shown them by every person in the house, from the proprietors down to the youngest among the little army of clerks and salesmen.

The hundreds of people who have this week been visiting Richmond from the rural districts have been taking in a most favorable impression of the good things there offered, and the cordial treatment they received at the hands of the splendid lot of people who run that establishment, an establishment that Richmond is justly proud of.

VISITORS

To the Fair are cordially invited to visit our establishments. We are in position to render the best Optical service obtainable, with complete Manufacturing Plant on the premises. Prescription Work our specialty. Our superior Spectacles and Eye-Glasses are known to be

GOOD FOR THE EYES

The S. Galeski Optical Co. HEADQUARTERS FOR EASTMAN KODAKS Artistic Developing and Printing MAIN AND BROAD AND EIGHTH AND THIRD

Emmy Destinn Says:

"I feel that my Hardman Piano has become an intimate part of my daily life."

Walter D. Moses & Co., 103 E. Broad Street.

Oldest Music House in Virginia and North Carolina.

J. W. Brauer, Richmond; third, Shot, J. W. Brauer, Richmond.

Champion pointer of the show, Zettelle, D. Garthwright, Richmond; second, Queen, D. Garthwright, Richmond; third, Memphis, John W. Brauer, Richmond; Pointer dogs—First, Ned, E. P. Woodall, Richmond; no competition; Pointer puppies—First, Gladys, D. Garthwright, Richmond; second, Buck, D. Garthwright, Richmond.

Grand champion of the show, Irrespective of breed—Indiana Spot, W. B. Andrews, Richmond; second, Beagle dogs—First, Rockbridge Promoter, A. L. Blair, Howardsville; second, Skiddoo, A. E. Osborne, Highland Springs; Champion beagle of the show—Rockbridge Promoter, A. L. Blair, Howardsville.

Beagle bitches—First, Skiddoo, A. E. Osborne, Highland Springs; second, Dutchess, A. L. Blair, Howardsville; third, Melba, A. L. Blair, Howardsville.

Beagle pups—First and third, I. S. Wood, Columbia; second, A. L. Blair, Howardsville.

Collie bitches—First, Belle Clinker, Highland Park Poultry Farm; second, Collie dogs—First, Ballantrae, W. Earl Miller, Glen Park; second, Laddie of Lynville, George T. Hogg, Richmond; third, Old Dominion Sky Bolt, W. Gay Smith, Richmond.

Collie puppies—First, Aeronaut, David M. Galloway, Culpeper; second, Highland Mary, W. Gay Smith, Richmond; third, Peggie, J. W. Bush, Richmond.

Champion collie—Ballantrae, W. Earl Miller, Richmond.

Premiers View Exhibit.

Farmers, threatening the exhibit of the State Department of Agriculture, where cuttings of alfalfa are exhibited and where its culture is explained, W. D. Zinn, of Philadelphia, Va., and M. Zimpelman, of Port Conway, Va., experts in alfalfa growth, are on the ground giving advice to all who seek it.

NET IS CLOSING ON DYNAMITERS

(Continued From First Page.)

Harrison Grey Otis, proprietor of the Los Angeles Times, was arrested yesterday on the warrant sworn to some time ago in San Francisco charging him with having criminally libeled Andrew Gallagher, a San Francisco labor leader.

Los Angeles, Cal., October 5.—Not only will the local strike of the metal trades and brewery workers not be declared off, but the State Federation of Labor guaranteed moral and financial assistance to the strikers, according to a resolution adopted by the State convention last night.

Since the Times disaster the possibility of declaring the two strikes off has been agitated, and one of the local newspapers which have been friendly to the union cause has advocated such a move.

But the delegates to the State convention evidently are not affected by this movement, as the following motion offered by Andrew Gallagher, of San Francisco, was adopted: "The convention declares its sense that the strike be not declared off, but that it continue until real industrial freedom—freedom for working men to have a voice in determining the conditions of their labor—be established in Los Angeles, and we guarantee to the strikers every ounce of moral and financial support that they may need."

REUNION OF FIFTH CAVALRY IS HELD

Veterans Gather in Annual Meeting—Will Secure Roster of Command.

Thirty of the forty-five survivors of the Fifth Virginia Cavalry joined in the annual reunion of the command held at Murphy's Hotel last night. In the banquet which followed, a number of the comrades of the famous "Fighting Fifth" retold the camp fires and told once more the old but ever new stories of the days of half a century ago.

At the business meeting the old officers were unanimously re-elected. These are Captain Peter J. White, president, and S. C. Shield, secretary and treasurer.

For the purpose of securing a more complete and authentic roster of the command, a committee was appointed, one from each company of which there is a survivor, to secure complete rolls of their respective companies. This committee is as follows: Company A, A. S. Hughes, of Gloucester; C. Harry Wooding, of Danville; D. S. H. Walcott, of Sutherland; E. L. A. Sanders, of Glen Allen; F. W. E. Fitchett, of Matthews; G. P. J. White, of Richmond; H. Sully Hankins, of Toano; I. Llewellyn Woods, of Charlottesville; K. Lee Clary, of South Richmond.

Banquet Follows. Secretary Sam C. Shield had prepared a banquet worthy of the occasion, devoting to its preparation much of his recent time. A number of invited guests were present, including distinguished veterans and several sons of deceased members.

President White introduced Mayor David Crockett Richardson as the toastmaster. The mayor said a few words about his experiences of the day as an aviator. While he had come down suddenly and unexpectedly, he enjoyed his experience, and pointed proudly to the fact that he had gone up. He called first on Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams, who served as a member of Company C, of the Fifth Cavalry.

Judge Williams said he hoped that the reunions would continue until but one member of the regiment remained, and that then the sons would take up the work and perpetuate the memories of the heroes who had gone.

Dr. W. E. Fitchett was called on to represent Colonel Fale, the regimental commander, who was killed at Yellow Tavern. The photographs of Colonel Fale and of Colonel Boston, who was killed at High Bridge, had been fortunately secured, and were printed on the menu cards.

Representative John Lamb told how Boston fell, and paid a high tribute to the Fifth. He himself was in the Third Cavalry.

Greatest in World. Colonel Joseph V. Bidgood said aptly that the Army of Northern Virginia was the greatest army in the world's history, because it had the greatest general.

In introducing Captain John Thompson Brown, Mayor Richardson described how he had seen Captain Brown receive what appeared to be his death wound at Spotsylvania Courthouse. He told of his experiences with the cavalry, including his appropriation of a horse.

Several Sons responded to toasts at the conclusion. Among the veterans present were: John A. Fitch, Matthews; W. P. Standbury, Henric; L. A. Saunders, Glen Allen; R. T. Howlett, Bon Air; B. W. Marston, Toano; J. S. Bishop, Richmond; W. E. Fitchett, Matthews; John E. Miller, Matthews; S. H. Vail, Sutherland; A. S. Hughes, Gloucester; Alexander James, Matthews; L. B. Quarles, Dumbar; B. L. Quarles, Ellersburg; J. J. Bland, Cologne; G. E. Massad, Dumbar; J. H. Cherry, South Richmond; P. J. White, S. C. Shield and Samuel W. Williams, Richmond, and T. J. Davis, Goochland.

A letter of regret at being unable to be present was read from General T. T. Munford, of Lynchburg.

MANUEL DEPOSED AND REPUBLIC IS PROCLAIMED

(Continued From First Page.)

The republic is generous and magnanimous.

People Are Composed.

The huge crowd that had gathered around the building cheered the speaker frantically. Notwithstanding the thrilling events of the past two days, and it seems likely that order in the city of Lisbon will be maintained. It is rumored that General Gorjas, who commanded the defending forces, committed suicide when he saw that the fall of the palace was inevitable.

The provisional government is composed as follows:

President, Theophile Braga; Minister of Justice, Alfonso Costa; Minister of Finance, Bernardino Machado; Minister of War, Antonio Teixeira; Minister of Public Works, Antonio Luiz Gomes; Minister of Marine, Amaro Azavedo; Minister of Agriculture, Antonio Almeida; Civil Governor of Lisbon, Eusebio Leao.

UNEASINESS IN MADRID

Government Takes Elaborate Precautions to Ensure Order.

Madrid, October 5.—The Spanish government has dispatched automobiles to Portugal, and has also sent warships in an effort to learn the exact situation in that country.

The dispatches received here from the scene of the trouble are conflicting. But all agree that a fierce engagement took place between the revolting regiment and the royalists. The Portuguese government, so soon as it learned the extent of the rising, decided that it would be safest to have King Manuel leave the palace. Both the King and the Queen Mother showed calmness in the face of the great calamity to the monarchy.

Late official advices from Lisbon, by way of the frontier, are to the effect that the greater part of the army remained faithful to the King. Communication with Lisbon from outlying districts, however, has been impossible, as the revolutionists cut all the bridges and blocked the highways in order to prevent the advance of the troops hurrying to the succor of the King. Nevertheless, the garrison at Elvas is now advancing on Lisbon, and the garrison at Oporto is prepared to leave for the capital on a moment's notice.

Premier Canallas said to-night that he was ignorant of the whereabouts of King Manuel, but was certain that he was safe, and possibly on his way to Gibraltar in an English warship.

To add to the confusing reports concerning King Manuel, it was stated at the Portuguese legation to-night that the King was aboard a Brazilian warship. It is not questioned that the King succeeded in eluding the revolutionists, but according to one report, were anxious to have him on their hands.

The greatest uneasiness prevails in Madrid, but all is quiet, although the fear was expressed in political circles that disorders may occur here to-night. The government has taken the most elaborate precautions to ensure order, and it is understood that the troops at the garrison at Seville are ready to depart for the Portuguese frontier.

The cruiser Carlos V., sailed for Lisbon to-night.

Advices received to-night from Lisbon state:

"The combat continues in the streets."

"Mother Queen Amelia has fled to the royal palace at Cintra, the summer residence. Queen Dowager Maria Pia, seventeen miles from Lisbon."

King Emanuel has found refuge on a warship."

Rumors have reached this city that 8,000 armed peasants have entered the Portuguese capital.

It is reported that the republican flags are not floating over the royal palace at Lisbon, but only on the Portuguese warships in the Tagus River.

NO NEWS IN WASHINGTON

Proclamation of Republic Regarded as Natural Sequence of Events.

Washington, October 5.—All through today the State Department awaited advices from American ministers at Lisbon, but presumably because of the interruption to the telegraph service, no word came from the scene of the Portuguese revolution. The Portuguese legation was similarly without official advices.

A proclamation of a republic at the Portuguese capital is regarded by the State Department officials as the natural sequence of the revolution, and the flight of the King. What the immediate outcome of the plans of the projectors of the republic will be, officials here do not conjecture, for it is recognized that a republic travels a rocky road in its infancy.

The Washington government's interest in the situation is merely that of a matter of information, for American interests in Portugal are slight, while British interests, for instance, are no indications that Americans are imperiled.

People Are Enthusiastic. London, Oct. 5, 8:22 P. M.—The foreign office has just received a telegram from the British minister, Sir F. H.

TO FAIR VISITORS

Who are awake to the possibilities and the splendid future of Richmond and who have decided to locate or to invest here,

Woodland Heights

..Offers an Unequalled Opportunity..

It is but a few minutes' ride from the heart of the city via Forest Hill trolley; a car every ten minutes and one fare to all points.

Woodland Heights is a beautifully located residence park located on the bluffs overlooking Richmond, the James River and the surrounding country. It has fine water piped to every home, excellent sewerage service, electric lighting, granolithic sidewalks and other conveniences.

We sell on easy terms and at prices which cannot be duplicated in any other good section.

An investment in Woodland Heights property is safe and sound. No other section can show such marked improvement and substantial development for so short a period.

Call and see us and let us give you full information and show you the property.

Office: 919 Mutual Building,

Telephone, Madison 2223.

A. M. GOVER, Sales Manager.

CALLS TO PICKPOCKET TO KEEP CASH AND SEND PAPERS

Minute instructions as to the return of his property were given yesterday to the thief by S. H. Love, member of the House of Delegates from Lunenburg, whose pocket was picked at the State Fair grounds. However, Mr. Love did not know who the culprit was.

While watching the hurdle race, Mr. Love was crowded and pressed by many spectators. At the conclusion of the race he felt in his trousers pocket and found that his purse was gone. He at once made his public announcement.

Villiers, at Lisbon, declaring that a republic has been proclaimed. The telegraph great. For that reason the matter of naval representation has not been officially raised so far as there gram follows:

"A serious disturbance broke out here, 'Lisbon.' Monday night, when some troops of the garrison declared themselves Republicans. Fighting occurred throughout yesterday morning. Troops heretofore loyal went over to the revolutionists, and a republic was proclaimed.

"Great excitement prevails. The proclamation of a republic was received enthusiastically by the people. 'I believe that a provisional government is being formed.

"King Manuel is said to be at Mafra eighteen miles northwest of Lisbon, at the royal palace, with the Queen Mother and the Prince Royal, but I have no precise news."

Surprise to Portuguese Consul.

New York, October 5.—News of the revolution in Portugal came as a surprise to Audifredo S. Gonvra, acting Portuguese consul in this city. Mr. Gonvra said he had no intimation that such an upheaval was imminent, and was without advices from his government. Regarding conditions in Portugal, Mr. Gonvra said:

"I was in Portugal a year ago. Unrest was abroad, and Republican sentiment seemed to be growing. Plots and counterplots were common.

"Then there is the church question to complicate matters. The anti-clerical feeling is to a great degree co-extensive with the anti-monarchical feeling. What surprises us most in the dispatches is the fact that the army and navy turned against the King. Hitherto they have been uniformly loyal. Of course, if they have actually turned against him, which I am still a little inclined to doubt, the present revolution will be permanent. The troops hold the key to the situation."

Guano at Genoa. Genoa, October 5.—The United States gunboats Farral and Wheeling arrived here to-day from Port Said. It is expected they will remain a week at this port, unless ordered to Lisbon to protect American interests.

Monarchy Is Doomed. Madrid, October 5.—The "Correspondence" attributes the revolution to the republican gains in the last election and the anti-dynasty tendencies of the nationalists party.

"El Liberal" believes that if the revolutionists hold out for twenty-four hours the monarchy is doomed, for in that time a majority of the royalists would rally to the support of a republic.

Shoe Product, St. Louis. St. Louis shoe manufacturers made 420,000 pairs of shoes during the week ending September 24, and shipped 21,410 cases of shoes. They operate forty-eight factories and employ 21,000 shoe workers. Reported by Shoe and Leather Gazette.

Effect of News on Bourse.

Berlin, October 5.—Portuguese bonds fell three points and the city of Lisbon bonds two points on the Bourse to-day. The Darmstadter Bank, the Portuguese financial agency in Berlin, has large deposits sufficient to secure for some time the payments of Portuguese obligations held in Germany.

The moderate decline in Portuguese securities here is attributed to the feeling of certainty that any new government would take over the obligations of the monarchy.

Neither the Portuguese legation nor the German foreign office has been informed officially of the revolution.

Gets Merited Promotion.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., October 5.—It was announced by the Post-Office Department to-day that Hal B. Mosby, of Virginia, has been promoted to $1,400 a year as a post-office inspector. His recent good work in connection with the Richmond post-office robbery is responsible for his promotion.

P. H. McG.

Fire! Fire!

"Pyrene" is now being pronounced by fire chiefs, insurance underwriters and business men generally the most practical and reliable of all hand chemical extinguishers. It has been endorsed and adopted by the New York, Richmond and other up-to-date tests prescribed by the Underwriters' Laboratories at Chicago.

"Don't fail to see it tested this (Thursday) afternoon at the State Fair in front of the grandstand. Write for further information to ARTHUR ARRINGTON, Agent, Richmond, Va.

Jersey Cows, Sheep and Hogs

Sold in Ring Friday

There will be held on FRIDAY MORNING at 10:30 prompt an auction sale of sixty head pure bred registered sheep, comprising many prize winners at the leading State fairs, and made up of the following breeds: Shropshire, Hampshire, Southdown, Cheviots, Delaines, Lincoln, Leicester and Cotswold breeds.

TERMS: Cash, 10 per cent. deposited with the clerk at time of sale; balance to be paid the clerk on or before 3 P. M. day of sale.

COL. W. H. IRWIN, Auctioneer.

Real Estate for Sale.

SEE THIS

$16.00 $16.00

James River Farm

Short distance west of Richmond. Only $16 per acre.

POLLARD & BAGBY,

1102 E. Main St., Richmond, Va.

R. A. ROHLEDER

Lawyer, Title Examiner

Eleven years making title plant in this city. Office 603 E. Main.

Phone Monroe 3074.

Farms Farms

Large and small, we have them all. If you want to buy or want to sell be sure and see us. Ask for our new catalogue containing 400 farm bargains.

CASSELMAN & COMPANY,

1111 East Main,

National State Bank Building.

Auction Sales, This Day.

At the Richmond Bazaar, Nineteenth and Franklin Sts.

I will sell

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 6TH.

100 Head Horses and Mules

Smooth Horses, with quality, thirty second-hand Horses and Mules ready for work; also one of the best Kentucky saddle horses in the land. Sale commences at 9 sharp.

JOSEPH LASITTER.

Auction Sales, Future Days.

Public Sale

Having sold my two farms, will sell at public sale, in Hagerstown Fair Ground.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14.

last day of the fair, twenty-six head of imported Belgium and Percheron Stallions and Mares. Also one imported German Coach Stallion.

Write for catalogue mailed free.

SAMUEL EMMERT, Hagerstown, Md.